

Asterios Sormas, MSc., PhD.

Lecturer

Dept. of Business Administration (Kozani), TEI of Western Macedonia

Asterios Sormas has acquired his bachelor's degree from the Thessaloniki Industrial School. He graduated the master's program of Northeastern University, Boston Mass and he presented his doctoral thesis on "Divestment: The case of Greek economy" in Democritus Trace University.

He is giving lectures in the Department since 2010, on Economics, Accounting and Mathematics for Economists. He is, also, lecturing in the MBA program that is co-organized with the National Economic University of Ternopil in Ukraine, the course of Advanced Economic Analysis. His academic carrier completes a seven year service as contract staff assistant professor in TEI of Larisa and Chalcis.

His professional carrier starts in 1990 as consultant by the Mayor of Katerini and later on as manager in companies of the private sector.

Asterios Sormas has published three textbooks on Accounting and Mathematics for Economists and papers on market structure, pricing and market failure.

Contact info

TEI of Western Macedonia

Dept. of Business Administration, Koila, Kozani, 50100.

Email: asormas@teiw.mg

Office Phone +30 24610 68000 ext. 1911